Catherine Weldon, Operations Research

An International Perspective,

sensitivity to other cultures, and the ability to read and speak a second language are increasingly important for today's engineers. In keeping with the university goals of internationalizing the curriculum, the College of Engineering encourages students to study or work abroad during their undergraduate years.

Cost, Billing and Financial Aid

- With Cornell Abroad, the cost of study abroad depends on what program you attend!
- Estimated budgets include bursared and out-of-pocket costs.
- Financial aid is available for Semester/Year programs
- See cuabroad.cornell.edu for more information

Credits Abroad and Transfer of Credit

- Students seeking credit for study abroad must apply through Cornell Abroad and carry a full course load equivalent to a minimum of 15 Cornell credits. All courses must be taken for a letter grade.
- Short term study abroad is offered through Cornell School for Continuing Education (SCE) for Cornell credit. Transfer credit also available. Register short-term study through Cornell Abroad.
- All courses taken during a fall or spring term will appear on your Cornell transcript; grades are not applied to your Cornell GPA
- Credit for study abroad awarded after successful completion (marks equivalent to a Cornell grade of "C" or higher) of the term abroad and receipt of your official transcript by the college

Cornell Abroad

How to make study abroad an integrated part of your Cornell experience:

1. READY...

Consider your academic requirements, college policies, goals, and personal preferences. Start exploring your options using cuabroad.cornell.edu for information meetings, fairs, and events. Refer to engineering.cornell.edu/studyabroad for course planning guides.

Walk-in Advising

- Learn how the process works
- Get basic information about program options
- Understand college policies and procedures
- Discuss goals for study abroad

Individual Appointments

- Identify a “best fit”
- Narrow program selections
- Learn more about particular programs
- Find information on course selection

2. SET...

Discuss your plans and set them in motion.

- If you would like to discuss your degree plan; timing of study abroad; or any requirements to complete before, during, or after your abroad experience, see Melissa Bazley, Engineering Advisor for Study Abroad.
- Schedule an appointment at Engineering Advising, 167 Olin Hall (607-255-7414)

If you want to fulfill:	Meet with:
Major requirements	Major Department Office
Minor requirements	Minor Department Office
Advisor-approved electives	Faculty Advisor
