

The College of Human Ecology

Policies and Procedures for Study Abroad & Exchange

ELIGIBILITY

- GPA of 3.0 or higher, good academic standing, and well articulated goals for student's study abroad term
- Registered full-time student at Cornell
- Students must take a full course load, as defined by your host institution while abroad. For a full-length term, this will translate to 15 credits upon returning to Cornell

DATES TO REMEMBER

- APPLY EARLY! Approval forms must be submitted to 146 MVR at least 4 weeks before your program deadline
- Cornell Approval: Spring: Oct 1; Fall and Full-year: March 1

ADVISING

Paul Fisher

Study Abroad & Exchange Advisor
170 MVR, 607.255.5471
psf1@cornell.edu

Deanne Maxwell

172 MVR, 607.255.2532
dhm8@cornell.edu

Cornell Abroad

See the Getting Started page for information on walk-in and individual advising

CUABROAD.CORNELL.EDU

Corey Keane, Human Development

Let the world be your classroom!

In all of Human Ecology's majors, students have the flexibility to spend a semester broadening their horizons while earning credits off campus. Work with your faculty advisor to create a graduation plan that evaluates how your study abroad courses mesh with your major requirements. Plan ahead so you can graduate on time.

Credits Abroad and Transfer of Credit

- Students seeking credit for HumEc-approved semester/year programs apply through Cornell Abroad
- Cornell Abroad students carry a full course load, equivalent to 15 US credits. For the purposes of study abroad, enrollment in a minimum of 15 credits is required to maintain good academic standing.
- All courses must be taken for a letter grade. Course titles and grades appear on the Cornell transcript but are not factored into the Cornell GPA
- Register your travels through Cornell's Travel Registry

Cost, Billing and Financial Aid

- With Cornell Abroad, the cost of study abroad depends on what program you attend!
- Estimated budgets include bursared and out-of-pocket costs.
- Financial aid is available for Semester/Year programs
- See cuabroad.cornell.edu for more information.

Cornell Abroad

How to make study abroad an integrated part of your Cornell experience:

Difference Between Exchange and Approved Programs

- Cornell Abroad administers semester- or year-long study abroad including internship and research-based options, direct enrollment, and Cornell Abroad managed programs. Hundreds of options are available to choose from depending on the student's academic and professional goals.
- The HumEc Exchange is comprised of unique, one-to-one agreements. For a semester or academic year, HumEc students attend one of the partner universities, and in exchange, their students come to study here. HumEc students pay their same Cornell tuition with no other administrative fees - particularly beneficial to New York State residents.

Human Ecology Approved www.cuabroad.cornell.edu	Exchange www.human.cornell.edu/che/Academics
Hundreds of participating universities and programs	Select participating universities
Tuition set by the abroad program or university	Students pay HumEc tuition
Cornell International Program Tuition (CIPT) fee	No additional fees-other than travel & incidentals
Info through Cornell Abroad website; submit to 146 MVR	Info through Cornell Abroad website; submit to 146 MVR
15 credits earned while abroad	15 credits earned while abroad

1. READY...

Consider your academic requirements, college policies, goals, and personal preferences.
Start exploring your options using cuabroad.cornell.edu for information meetings, fairs, and events.

Walk-in Advising

- Learn how the process works
- Get basic information about program options
- Understand college policies and procedures
- Discuss goals for study abroad

Individual Appointments

- Identify a "best fit"
- Narrow program selections
- Learn more about particular programs
- Find information on course selection

2. SET...

Discuss your plans and set them in motion.

- Start the Cornell approval process via cuabroad.cornell.edu. Search for your program and begin a "new application"
- Schedule an appointment with the appropriate advisor in your college to discuss proposed selection and degree plan.

If you want to fulfill:	Meet with:
College & Degree requirements	Paul Fisher, Sr. Assoc. Director, Student Services and Deanne Maxwell, Student Services
Major requirements	Faculty advisor, recommendation required
Minor requirements	Minor advisor

- Submit and complete the Cornell approval process via cuabroad.cornell.edu
- Submit participation & course approval form to Human Ecology Registrar (146 MVR) at least 4 weeks before program deadline
- Prepare separate application directly to program, if applicable.

3. GO!

Fulfill all final pre-departure requirements, and enjoy an academically stimulating and culturally enriching experience!

REQUIREMENTS

- Cornell students are required to formally study the language of the host country when in non English-Speaking countries
- Students must enroll for a full course load while abroad (equivalent to 15 credit hours) to maintain good academic standing
- Programs must last a minimum of 14 weeks for full credit